of 9692 South Las Vegas Boulevard, Las Vegas, Nevada 89123, Shell gas station. This interview is being conducted as a continuing investigation involving Event# LLV201200083358. All right, SA [REDACTED] For the record just your date of birth.

A: Uh, my date of birth is PII, SA [REDACTED]

Q: Okay. So what's going on?

A: Um, what's going on is, um, about the end of 2018 - or 2008, um, the beginning of 2009, um, I met this guy Jamal Rasheed aka Molly Ma. Um, I met him outside of the red, um, the Hard Rock on Paradise. And, um, he told me that he was like a producer. He was with this other guy name PRVCY [REDACTED] And he told me like oh that, you know, that they were gonna go hang out and things and they - he took my number. And next thing I know he started to text me like different like little clips and pictures of like how he was a producer with him and PRVCY [REDACTED] and all this other stuff. And, um, all these pictures with him and his cat and stuff and so I was like okay. So I went to go hang out with him one night. The first night I went to go meet him, um, I started feeling very, very dazed. Um, very, very like kind of out of it. Um, I later found out like that day LEP-NA [REDACTED] and, um, then I came back and, um, I was talking to him about it. And he was just like, "Oh no I thought you would like it." And LEP-NA [REDACTED]

LEP-NA [REDACTED] And so he like LEP-NA [REDACTED]

LEP-NA [REDACTED] I don't know how you explain it. Like with me, like, very, very quickly. And, um, he would [REDACTED] LEP-NA [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] LEP-NA [REDACTED]

Um, after that - after maybe three times of me meeting him and this happening, um, he told me that he had an escorting service. And the escorting service was me basically like kind of being a host and going out and - and just like going to these different tables with these different guys. And I didn't have to do too much. I just had to look pretty. Um, when I - he told me to text or email - I forgot which one but give my - my ID over to this girl named [REDACTED] PRV [REDACTED] CY [REDACTED] And that [REDACTED] PR [REDACTED] VC [REDACTED] would register me and get all my information for me to go out and be a host. After that they found out that I wasn't old enough to go inside the club. At that - at that time I was 18 turning 19. So he was like, "Okay you're not old enough so I'm gonna have you go out with a different set of girls." These set of girls were, um, they were like casino workers I guess. So we would go out and after that like they kind of showed me like the routine or, you know, the procedure or whatever like, "Oh, you know, we just talk to these guys and, [REDACTED] LEP-NA [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] LEP-NA [REDACTED]

And, you know they did all the work and they just kind of showed me what was going on. At that point I told them - I told Jamal that I did not wanna do that. That that wasn't my thing. [REDACTED] LEP-NA [REDACTED] He told me that, you know, he would give me all this stuff and whatever, whatever. So I didn't have much. Um, so I just kind of kept rolling with it. Shortly after that,

Um, the first time this happened this occurred was in his Bentley when he was looking for some money and we were sitting in his Bentley. He asked me, um, where the money was or whatever and I just told him like oh, you know, I had only made a certain amount.

That night I had got into it [REDACTED] - I don't know what happened. But anyways [REDACTED]

LEP-NA [REDACTED]

Q: What year was this?

A: Um...

Q: This incident?

A: ...2000 and maybe - maybe 2000 and, uh, let's see. It's October 12th. It doesn't give me the year.

Q: But just approximate for right now.

A: Um, maybe - maybe 2000 and, uh, and like ten or something like that.

Q: Okay. All right. Continue from there.

A: So...

Q: [REDACTED]

A: [REDACTED] And,

um [REDACTED]

himself like through, um, and he had a refrigerator in his, um, in his bedroom and

LEP-NA [REDACTED] He

LEP-NA [REDACTED]

LEP-NA [REDACTED] Um, he - he - he would just do all of this. So anyways I just like kind of kept going with it because I didn't have anywhere to go. Um, all of my stuff was like in his name - LEP-NA [REDACTED]

LEP-NA [REDACTED] Like the car that I have right now it's his. The only reason why he can't report it stolen is because it's in my name. But he got me that car. Um, but he would do all of these different things and now I'm just - I'm jut really, LEP-NA [REDACTED]

Q: When did you leave?

A: In 2000 and 18.

Q: Hang on one second. I'm gonna pause the - actually Detective Raspopovich can you take over from here?

Q1: Okay yes.

Q: It's gonna be related LEP-NA [REDACTED]

Q1: Okay. So, uh, uh, so at this point you mentioned, you know, he can't take that car from you. And, uh [REDACTED] He's just basically slowly - slowly, you know, like, you know, [REDACTED]

A: Right.

Q1: So then go ahead. And this is about 2012?

A: Yes. And this is about 2012 but it continued after 2000 and - and 12. Like it continued all the way up until 2018 is when I left.

Q1: Mm-hm.

A: But I was [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] a town story house in Lyndhurst. Um, it was located, um, right off of the - right off of the Lincoln Tunnel in Lyndhurst. Like right where Extended - because of the Extended Stay right there off of - off of the highway.

And, um, he had an Audi out there and, um, we just kind of stayed out there and that like I said like I left like around like 2017, '18. Um, and ever since then like I haven't had too many problems but I'm still really [REDACTED] LEP-NA, SA

[REDACTED] LEP-NA, SA

has reached out to my sister and they told my sister like [REDACTED] LEP-NA, SA

[REDACTED] LEP-NA, SA

and things like that. Um, I don't know who the girl was. I don't know she found out who my little sister was. And, you know, so from there and, um, I don't know really know. That's kind of - that's kind of there.

Q1: Where does your sister live?

A: She lives in - she lives in, [REDACTED] SA

Q1: In [REDACTED] SA

A: Yes.

Q1: So is - [REDACTED] SA

A: No it's in [REDACTED] SA

Q1: Oh [REDACTED] SA

A: Yes.

Q1: And h- how did they reach out to her?

A: Um, through social media.

Q1: Okay. What platform, do you know?

A: Um, I believe it was Facebook.

Q1: Okay. Right now, detective we're at, uh the point [REDACTED] LEP-NA

A: He - because I let out a video on social media kind of state - I stated that, um, that, you know, LEP-NA [REDACTED] And I voiced it on social media and that's what caused the ripple effect.

Q: And how long ago did you do that?

A: This was maybe a couple - some months ago.

Q: Okay. When's the last contact you actually had with him?

A: The actual contact is when I talked to him on and off, um, in 2009. Um, because I wanted - he wanted to see where I was at. I was trying to kind of see where he was at because I was still here in Las Vegas. So I needed to know where he was because LEP-NA [REDACTED]

LEP-NA [REDACTED]

Q: So the last time you actually spoke to him was 2000 what?

A: It was 2019.

Q: Okay. And then you've completely split contact off with him? You haven't met him since then? You haven't talked to him?

A: No I haven't even - I didn't see him...

Q: Have you worked with any of the other girls LEP-NA [REDACTED] Anything

A: She just [REDACTED] LEP-NA

Q: [REDACTED] LEP-NA

A: No. Not that she told me.

Q: And it was all over text?

A: It was all over social media.

Q: Okay. Do you - does she have, uh, images of those?

A: I believe so.

Q: Okay. And who specifically [REDACTED] LEP-NA

A: It was another girl. I'm thinking that it's like someone else that works for him.

Uh, when I worked for...

Q: You don't know who she is?

A: I don't know who she is.

Q: Okay.

A: I - I've seen the name. I don't know who that is.

Q: Okay. Is he still working right now or what's his - I mean what's his deal?

A: I don't know. I haven't seen him since 2018. So I don't know exactly what's Q: What else - okay.

A: Yes. Every...

Q: You stay with other girls?

A: Sometimes. It depends on what state we were in and it depends on, um, uh, what state. Like if we were in New York he already had a place set up out there. So when I got off the plane he would have somebody come pick me up and take me over there. But every spot that I had out here in Las Vegas it was a spot that

Q: Okay.

A: I was maybe arrested out here maybe 100 times - maybe 103.

Q: And how many times did he send you to a different state? New York was one of them?

A: Yeah. It was New York, New Jersey because we lived in New Jersey. It was, um, Hawaii, and Texas.

Q: How would you [REDACTED] LEP-NA

A: Um, we actually went [REDACTED] LEP-NA

Q: You know [REDACTED] PRVC real name?

A: I really think it was [REDACTED] PRVC I don't know her last name though. She was a dark skinned girl, kind of little chunky.

Q: Was she the primary one that you dealt with?

A: Yes.

Q: Okay.

A: It was under different businesses and we would have the account number to different businesses and [REDACTED] - wait - am I gonna get in trouble for this?

Q: No.

A: Oh okay [REDACTED]

Q: Okay. [REDACTED] Were there [REDACTED] That kind of thing?

A: It was - yes. Like, um, I had said earlier in the interview [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Q: Okay. So how did your actually separating from him, uh, work?

A: Um...

Q: And what year was that?

A: In 2000 and - the end of 2017.

Q: Is there anything that happened after that? Did anyone come forward to try to LEP-NA [REDACTED] Have you made contact with anybody when you found yourself back here in Las Vegas, correct?

A: Um, well I - yes. I was still living in the apartment that he had for me.

Q: Mm-hm.

A: But the - like I came home one time from school and the apartment had been broken into. Well it - it wasn't all the way broken into but the lock was - the lock was loose. But I couldn't - I couldn't say who it was and when I went to the police station they told me that I would have to call someone out there to make a report and stuff like that. And so I just never did because I didn't have any evidence that it was him. But the lock was off the door pretty much but they just d- hadn't got in. It seemed like somebody had maybe caught - like was gonna catch them or something and they like left but the - the whole thing was - I even filed, um, a complaint with the office that I was wor-, um, living at. Records of Criminal History

The record(s) you seek contain criminal history information.

NRS 239.001 provides that public records are open to inspection. However, NRS 239.010(1) expressly creates exemptions to the disclosure of records falling under various statutes, including NRS 179A.070. Pursuant to NRS 179A.070, a “record of criminal history” is “information contained in records collected and maintained by agencies of criminal justice, the subject of which is a natural person, consisting of descriptions which identify the subject and notations of summons in a criminal action, warrants, arrests, citations for misdemeanors..., detentions, decisions of a district attorney or the Attorney General not to prosecute the subject, indictments, informations or other formal criminal charges and dispositions of charges....” NRS 179A.070(1).

Here, the record(s) you seek contain criminal history information. Therefore, they are confidential and must be withheld.

LEP

Law Enforcement Privilege

The record(s) you seek are law enforcement records.

In Donrey v. Bradshaw, 106 Nev. 630, 798 P.2d 144, fn. 4 (1990), the Nevada Supreme Court referred to Exemption 7 of the federal Freedom of Information Act and recognized that law enforcement files are confidential when pertaining to a “pending or anticipated criminal proceeding,” if there are “confidential sources or investigative techniques to protect,” if there is a danger of “denying someone a fair trial,” or if there is “potential jeopardy to law enforcement personnel.” 106 Nev. at 636, 798 P.2d at 148. Exemption 7 is codified at 5 USC § 552(b)(7). Subparts (A)-(F) make law enforcement records confidential if disclosure “could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings,” “would deprive a person of a fair trial,” “could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy,” “could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source,” “would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement,” or “could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual.” See also Att. Gen. Op. 83-3 (recognizing the “legitimate public policy interests in maintaining confidentiality of criminal investigation records and criminal reports”).

Here, the record(s) you seek are law enforcement records. LVMPD’s interest in nondisclosure clearly outweighs the public’s interest in access. Thus, they are confidential and must be withheld or redacted.

LEP-NA

Law Enforcement Privilege Subject Not Arrested

The record(s) you seek are law enforcement records that pertain to a subject accused of criminal activity, however never criminally charged or arrested.

The accused have privacy rights. In Donrey v. Bradshaw, 106 Nev. 630, 798 P.2d 144, fn. 4 (1990), the Nevada Supreme Court referred to Exemption 7 of the federal Freedom of Information Act and recognized that law enforcement files are confidential in many circumstances. Exemption 7 is codified at 5 USC § 552(b)(7). Subpart (C) makes law enforcement records confidential if disclosure “could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.” See also 5 USC § 522(b)(6) (FOIA Exemption 6) (making records confidential if disclosure “would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy”). Donrey cites to Att. Gen. Op. 83-3, which consolidates prevailing law governing the disclosure of law enforcement records. It provides, with emphasis added:

The legitimate public policy interests in maintaining confidentiality of criminal investigation records and criminal reports include the protection of the elements of an investigation of a crime from premature disclosures, the avoidance of prejudice to the later trial of the defendant from harmful pretrial publicity, the protection of the privacy of persons who are not arrested from the stigma of being singled out as a criminal suspect, and the protection of the identity of informants. These interests have generally been recognized by the courts to outweigh the general policy of openness in government and reflect the common law view that certain records which pertain to criminal investigations are confidential.

Here, to the extent records accusing the subject of criminal activity exist, there has never been an arrest. As such, a privacy interest arises making any such records confidential.

Medical

The record(s) you seek are medical records and contain information the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of a person's privacy interests

In Clark County Sch. Dist. v. Las Vegas Review-Journal, — Nev. —, 429 P.3d 313, 319-20 (2018), the Nevada Supreme Court cited extensively to Cameranesi v. U.S. Dep't of Defense, 856 F.3d 626 (9th Cir. 2017), which relies on federal Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Exemption 6. The Court had previously referred to FOIA exemptions on several occasions when construing the Nevada Public Records Act. See Donrey v. Bradshaw, 106 Nev. 630, 798 P.2d 144, fn. 4 (1990) (Exemption 7); DR Partners v. Board of County Comm'rs, 116 Nev. 616, 6 P.3d 465 (2000) (Exemption 5).

Exemption 6 is codified at 5 USC § 552(b)(6), which makes confidential “personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy.”

In Reno Newspapers v. Sheriff, 126 Nev. 211, 218, 234 P.3d 922, 927 (2010), the Nevada Supreme Court recognized that an individual's privacy must be balanced with the public's general right to open government, “especially because private and personal information may be recorded in government files”). Later, in Clark County Sch. Dist. v. Las Vegas Review-Journal, — Nev. —, 429 P.3d 313, 319-20 (2018), the Court adopted a balancing test in which the burden shifts to the requester of a record if the public agency demonstrates a “nontrivial personal privacy interest” including “intrusion[s] into a person's reasonable expectation of privacy, seclusion, or solitude.” Privacy interests include information that may cause “embarrassment, shame, stigma, [or] harassment” or “endangerment, or similar harm.” *Las Vegas Metro. Personal Identifying Information

The record(s) you seek contain personal identifying information.

NRS 239.001 provides that public records are open to inspection. However, NRS 239.010(1) expressly creates exemptions to the disclosure of records falling under various statutes, including NRS 239B.030. NRS 239B.030 makes “personal information” confidential. NRS 603A.040 defines “personal information” to include social security numbers, driver’s license numbers, account numbers, and the like.

Here, because the record(s) you seek contain confidential personal identifying information, they have been redacted.
